To apply for a Minnesota driver's license, identification card, or permit, you may present either:

- A Minnesota driver's license, identification card, or permit that is current or expired for five years or less if it has a photo or one year or less if it does not have a photo.

If you do not have one of the items listed above, you must present one primary and one secondary document. The primary document must contain your full name and the month, day, and year of your birth. Any document not in English must be accompanied by a qualified English translation.

If the name on your Minnesota driver's license, identification card, or permit has changed or the names on your primary and secondary documents do not match, you must also present proof of your legal name change(s). Acceptable proof consists of certified marriage certificates, certified divorce decrees, or other certified court orders. Divorce decrees or other court orders must specify the name change. Your identity and name change documents need to show a clear link between your primary and secondary documents.

The name on the Minnesota driver's license, identification card, or permit that is issued to you will be the name on the primary document or legal name change document.

If you are a temporary United States resident, you may need to show additional proof of your lawful admission period, such as a form I-20, DS-2019, I-797, or other official immigration document or receipt.
